

Coalition Index for Transaction Banking – FY21

March 23, 2022

Executive Summary:

- Transaction Banking revenues marginally declined in FY21 with decreases in Cash Management offset by growth in Trade Finance. 2H performed better than 1H in both product areas driven by continued recovery from the pandemic.
- Trade Finance revenues in FY21 experienced the highest YoY growth since the beginning of 2016 and surpassed pre-pandemic levels.
- Deposit balances continued to grow in FY21 and reached the highest level since FY15 driven by abundant liquidity.
- Transaction Banking headcount remained stable in FY21 as selective hiring in Trade Finance was partially offset by reductions in Cash Management.
- Improvements in Trade Finance revenues led to increases in Trade Finance productivity in FY21.
